GOD'S PSYCHIATRY

MY SHEPHERD

(Psalm 23:1-6) The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

WHEN GOD IS MY SHEPHERD

Psalm 23:1 The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.

1. I find my identity.
2. I find a place to belong.
3. I have peace about my future.

(Psalm 37:25) "I have been young, and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread."

Do more beloved words exist? Framed and hung in hospital rooms, scratched on prison walls, quoted by the young, and whispered by the dying. In these lines, sailors have found a harbor, the frightened have found a father, and the strugglers have found a friend. - Max Lucado
